Congratulations! We are pleased to inform you that you have been selected to participate in the 2012 RSNA Clinical Trials Methodology Workshop. You will join a select group of investigators who will learn the process of developing a protocol for the clinical evaluation of imaging modalities.

The course will take place from January 14-20, 2012 in Scottsdale, Arizona at the Hyatt Regency Scottsdale Resort & Spa at Gainey Ranch.

Congratulations on being one of the participants selected for this exciting and beneficial program.

Sincerely,

Barry A. Siegel
